Building an inclusive, diverse and active humanitarian movement based on voluntary service

Role purpose

The Disaster Recovery Advisors and Mentors Australia program aims to support communities impacted by disasters to drive their own recovery by harnessing the wealth of existing prior lived experience in recovery to support community leaders currently in the midst of recovery.

The purpose of the Mentor role is to provide emotional and practical support for mentees through the recovery process. This relationship should be thoughtful, non-judgemental, respectful, and consistent with the Fundamental Principles of the Red Cross and Red Crescent Movement.

As a DRAMA Mentor you'll join a network of mentors. The network is used when communities and community leaders are in need of support after an emergency.

Role responsibilities

- Engage in conversation with mentee to better understand their needs
- Share your experience and expertise as appropriate
- Connect the mentee to information, resources and others who can help
- Provide advice, guidance and constructive feedback where required
- Discuss options with mentees and encourage their autonomy
- Maintain confidentiality of information obtained during mentor relationship unless this information must be disclosed to Red Cross to assist mentee
- Recognise and celebrate achievements throughout the recovery experience
- Act as peer support for other mentors during mentoring activities
- Contribute to the monitoring and evaluation process.
