Governance Regulations

1 Governance Regulations

- (a) These Governance Regulations are made by the Board in accordance with Rule 8 [Regulations].
- (b) These Governance Regulations must be read subject to the Royal Charter and the Rules. To the extent of any inconsistency the Royal Charter, followed by the Rules, will prevail over these Governance Regulations.

2 Membership

Membership is belonging and a right to participate in governance of the Society.

2.1 Membership eligibility and application process

- (a) A person is eligible to be a Member if they:
  - (i) are a natural person; and
  - (ii) ordinarily reside or work within the Commonwealth of Australia.
- (b) Subject to Regulation 2.1(a) a person may apply to become a Member by submitting an application form (in the form approved by the Board).
- (c) Upon approval by the Society, in accordance with delegations from the Board and any sub-delegations from the CEO (Secretary-General), the applicant becomes a Member.
- (d) There is no compulsory fee payable to become a Member or renew membership.

2.2 Division Members

- (a) A Division is constituted by all Members whose residential address on the register of Members is within the geographical boundaries of the Division (Division Member).
- (b) Despite Regulation 2.2(a), any Member who resides within a town that borders two or more Divisions (e.g., Albury and Wodonga or Coolangatta and Tweed Heads) may give not less than 45 days' notice to the Society electing to become a member of a different Division (that is still within close proximity to their residential address). An election under this Regulation 2.2(b) may only be made once per calendar year.
- (c) If a Division Member changes their residential address, they must within a reasonable period give notice to the Society of their updated residential address, so that register of Members may be updated with effect from the date the notice is received.

2.3 Membership renewal

- (a) Members must renew their membership annually by 30 June through any mechanism approved by the Board.
- (b) Where a Member does not renew their membership by 31 December their membership of the Society will lapse.
- (c) Despite Regulation 2.3(b), a Member may revive their membership of the Society by submitting an application for membership in accordance with Regulation 2.1(b) [Membership eligibility and application process], and upon approval by the Society any prior service (other than that period where membership had lapsed) will be retained for the purposes of service calculations.

3 Volunteering

Volunteering is the undertaking of activities to support the objects of the Society set out in Rule 2 [Society's objects]. For example, this includes a broad range of activities including fundraising and support for any of the Society's programs.

- (a) The CEO (Secretary—General) may determine any policy or strategy for volunteering which shall set out the mechanisms by which Volunteers may participate in designing and improving the Volunteer Activities.
- (b) The CEO (Secretary—General) may determine:
  - (i) any probity checks required to be held; and
  - (ii) training that must be undertaken,by Volunteers prior to undertaking Volunteer Activities.
- (c) The Society will provide support to Volunteers that is considered necessary or appropriate (which may include inductions and training) to allow Volunteers to carry out the Volunteer Activities.

4 National Council and Board elections and appointments

4.1 Roles and Responsibilities of the Elections and Appointments Panel

- (a) In addition to any roles and responsibilities under the Rules and these Governance Regulations, the roles and responsibilities of the Elections and Appointments Panel may be set out in terms of reference or a position description determined by the Board.
- (b) To facilitate Elections and Appointment Panel processes, the Board shall determine any review and interview process and timeframes that it determines appropriate in order to:
  - (i) call for nominations under this Regulation 4;
  - (ii) assess nominees against the selection criteria specified; and
  - (iii) in the case of Regulations 4.2 [President nominations], 4.3 [Special Councillor nominations] and 4.4 [Board nominations] send notice to the National Council in accordance with the Rules.

4.2 President nominations

- (a) The selection criteria for the President will be determined by the Board.
- (b) No minimum period of membership is required for appointment as President.
- (c) At least 21 days' before the date in 4.2(d)(iv), any vacancy for President (which will include a vacancy arising from the President retiring whether or not they are offering themselves for re-election) together with the selection criteria (or a link to the selection criteria) will be:
  - (i) notified to Members;
  - (ii) advertised on the Society's website; and
  - (iii) advertised in public forums (as determined by the Board).
- (d) To be eligible for nomination as President, the nominee must meet the eligibility criteria in Rule 11.3 [Eligibility to be a National Councillor], and a nomination must:
  - (i) be in the form (if any) prescribed by the Board;
  - (ii) be consented to by the nominee;
  - (iii) set out the relevant special skills, contributions or experience held by the nominee in relation to the selection criteria specified under Regulation 4.2(a); and

- (iv) be received by the Society Secretary on or prior to the date determined by the Board.
- (e) The Elections and Appointments Panel must, within the time periods determined under Regulation 4.1(b) send to the National Council (in accordance with the Rules) any nominee or nominees' names together with their skills, contributions and experience (as set out in their nomination form) which the Elections and Appointments Panel considers:
  - (i) meet the selection criteria specified under Regulation 4.2(a); and
  - (ii) are appropriate for the role of President, including taking into account any prior performance (if any) in any leadership or governance role in the Society.
- (f) Where there is no candidate that meets the requirements of Regulation 4.2(e), the Elections and Appointments Panel must notify National Council, and the process in this Regulation 4.2 must be repeated.

4.3 Special Councillor nominations

- (a) To be eligible to be a Special Councillor, the Member must:
  - (i) have been a Member for at least five years;
  - (ii) have made an outstanding contribution to the Society;
  - (iii) not be disqualified from being a responsible entity under the ACNC Act;
  - (iv) not be disqualified from involvement in the management of a corporation under the Corporations Act; and
  - (v) have experience on a board or a committee (or similar).
- (b) At least 21 days' before the date in 4.3(c)(iv) any vacancies for Special Councillor (which will include vacancies arising from Special Councillors retiring whether or not they are offering themselves for re-election) together with the criteria in Regulation 4.3(a) will be notified to Members.
- (c) To be eligible for nomination as Special Councillor, the nominee must meet the eligibility criteria in Rule 11.3 [Eligibility to be a National Councillor] and Regulation 4.3(a), and a nomination must:
  - (i) be in the form (if any) prescribed by the Board;
  - (ii) be consented to by the nominee;
  - (iii) set out the relevant skills, contributions or experience held by the nominee relevant to the role, including in relation to the criteria set out in Regulation 4.3(a); and
  - (iv) be received by the Society Secretary on or prior to the date determined by the Board.
- (d) The Elections and Appointments Panel must, within the time periods determined under Regulation 4.1(b), send to the National Council (in accordance with the Rules) any nominee or nominees' names together with their skills, contributions and experience (as set out in their nomination form) which the Elections and Appointments Panel considers:
  - (i) meet the criteria specified under Regulation 4.3(a); and
  - (ii) are appropriate for the role of Special Councillor, including taking into account any prior performance (if any) in any leadership or governance role in the Society.

4.4 Board nominations

- (a) The Board shall determine:
  - (i) the position description for Board Members;
  - (ii) any selection criteria, including having regard to the current skills and experience of current Board Members against the Board's desired skills and experience as a group;

- (iii) any diversity characteristics that the Board has identified as desirable for the purpose of promoting equal opportunity; and
  - (iv) subject to the Rules, the number of vacancies for Reserved Board Members and Open Board Members which will include vacancies arising from Board Members retiring whether or not they are offering themselves for re-appointment.
- (b) At least 21 days' before the date in 4.4(c)(vi) any vacancies for Reserved Board Members and Open Board Members together with the details in Regulation 4.4(a) (or a link to those details) will be:

    - (B) assess nominees' prior performance on the Board; and
    - (C) make a recommendation to the Board for their consideration in accordance with Rule 13.9 [Board Chair and Deputy Board Chair].

5 Division General Meetings

5.1 Meetings of Division Members

- (a) Each Division will hold at least one general meeting of Division Members annually (being the annual general meeting of the Division) and may hold additional extraordinary general meetings of Division Members at a date, time and place determined by the respective Division Council.
- (b) At least 21 days' notice of any Division General Meeting must be provided to every Division Member specifying the:
  - (i) date, time and place of the meeting; and
  - (ii) nature of the business to be considered at the meeting.
- (c) Supporting papers relating to any items of business proposed for a Division General Meeting must insofar as is practical, be forwarded to each Division Member at least 21 days before the meeting.

5.2 Annual general meeting of the Division

- (a) The annual general meeting of each Division will be held at a date, time and place determined by the Division Council, which must be not more than 75 days nor less than 45 days before the annual general meeting of the National Council.
- (b) The business of the annual general meeting of the Division will include:
  - (i) electing Division Councillors;
  - (ii) receiving and considering reports on the activities and performance of the Society's activities within the Division during the previous financial year;
  - (iii) allowing an opportunity for Members to ask questions, including about the governance and activities of the Division; and
  - (iv) any other matters that may be considered by Division Members at a general meeting in accordance with these Governance Regulations, provided that at least 21 days' notice in writing has been given to the Division Council Chair.

- (c) Division General Meetings provide an opportunity for communication between Division Members and Division Council.

5.3 Chair of Division General Meetings

- (a) The respective Division Council Chair must preside as chair at each Division General Meeting if present and willing to act.
- (b) If the Division Council Chair is not present at the meeting within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the Division General Meeting, is not present at any part of the Division General Meeting or is unwilling to act, the Division Council Deputy Chair will preside as chair at the Division General Meeting (or part thereof). If there is no Division Council Deputy Chair or the Division Council Deputy Chair is not present or not willing to act, the Division Members present must elect one of the Division Councillors present as chair of the Division General Meeting (or part thereof).
- (c) A question arising at a Division General Meeting relating to the order of business, procedure or conduct of the meeting must be referred to the chair of the meeting, whose decision is final.

5.4 Quorum at Division General Meetings

- (a) The quorum for a Division General Meeting will be 20 Division Members.
- (b) No business may be transacted at a Division General Meeting unless a quorum is present when the meeting proceeds to business.
- (c) If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the Division General Meeting, the meeting will be adjourned and reconvened to a date, time and place within 14 days as the Division Council Chair decides by notice given to those entitled to notice of the original meeting.
- (d) If at the adjourned meeting under Regulation 5.4(c), a quorum is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, the meeting must be dissolved, and the Society Secretary or Board Chair notified in writing of the occurrence within two Business Days.

5.5 Meeting called by Division Members

A Division Council must call an extraordinary Division General Meeting within three months following a written request to the Division Council Chair signed by at least 20 Division Members which must specify:

- (a) the purpose of the proposed Division General Meeting; and
- (b) any resolutions proposed to be passed at the proposed Division General Meeting.

5.6 Adjournment of Division General Meeting

Except where a Division General Meeting is adjourned under Regulation 5.4(c) [Quorum at Division General Meetings], the chair of a Division General Meeting may at any time adjourn any business, motion, question, resolution, debate or discussion being considered or remaining to be considered, either to:

- (a) a later time at the same meeting; or
- (b) a meeting reconvened to a date, time and place within 14 days as the Division Council Chair decides, by notice given to those entitled to notice of the original meeting.

5.7 Eligibility for voting

- (a) A Division Member may vote at a Division General Meeting, provided the Division Member at the date of the meeting or the closing of any ballot (as the case may be):
  - (i) is at least 15 years of age; and
  - (ii) has been a Member for at least six months.

- (b) A Division Member may exercise only one vote on each motion or resolution at any Division General Meeting (not including any vote exercised as a proxy for another Division Member).
- (c) A motion or vote at a Division General Meeting will be decided by a majority of votes cast.
- (d) Subject to Regulation 5.7(e), a resolution put to the vote of a Division General Meeting must be decided by a ballot.
- (e) The chair of the Division General Meeting may determine that a motion shall be decided on a show of hands unless, before or immediately after the vote is taken on a show of hands, where at least two Division Members demand a ballot.
- (f) Where the votes on a proposed motion or resolution are equal, the chair of the meeting is entitled to a casting vote in addition to any votes to which the chair of the meeting is entitled as a Division Member or proxy for a Division Member.

5.8 Proxies for Division Members

- (a) A Division Member entitled to vote at a Division General Meeting is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend a Division General Meeting and vote on behalf of the Division Member.
- (b) The proxy must be:
  - (i) the Division Council Chair;
  - (ii) the chair of the meeting; or
  - (iii) another Division Member who at the date of the meeting:
    - (A) is at least 15 years old; and
    - (B) has been a Member for at least six months.
- (c) Proxies must be received by the Director – State/Territory at least three Business Days before the Division General Meeting.
- (d) The instrument appointing a proxy must be in writing in the form prescribed by the Division Council (if any).
- (e) A proxy is entitled to a separate vote for each Division Member the proxy represents, in addition to any vote the person may have as a Division Member in their own right.
- (f) The written appointment of the proxy may direct the manner in which the proxy is to vote in respect of a particular resolution and, where this is provided, the proxy must vote on the proposed resolution as directed in the appointment.
- (g) The appointment of a proxy is not revoked by the appointer attending and taking part in the Division General Meeting but, if the appointer votes on a resolution in person, the person acting as proxy for the appointer is not entitled to vote, and must not vote, as the appointer's proxy on the resolution.

5.9 Observers at Division General Meetings

- (a) The President, Board Members, the CEO (Secretary- General), the Society Secretary, and the Director – State/Territory must be given notice of and be invited to attend and observe all Division General Meetings.
- (b) To the extent not already invited as a Division Member, the Division Council:
  - (i) must invite all Volunteers who reside, and all employees who work, within a Division to any Division General Meeting, and encourage those persons to attend; and
  - (ii) may invite any person, including representatives of stakeholder organisations or members of the wider community within the Division to attend any Division General Meeting.

- (c) Only Division Members have the right to vote in respect of any resolution or to exercise any right which a Division Member may have under these Governance Regulations at any Division General Meeting.

5.10 Division General Meetings using technology

- (a) A Division Member who takes part in a Division General Meeting by telephone or using technology is taken to be present in person at the meeting.
- (b) Subject to Regulation 5.1(b) [Meetings of Division Members], the simultaneous linking together by telephone or using technology of a sufficient number of the Division Members to constitute a quorum constitutes a Division General Meeting.
- (c) A Division General Meeting by telephone or other electronic means is taken as held at the place decided by the chair of the meeting, as long as at least one Division Member was at that place for the duration of the meeting.
- (d) If a technical difficulty occurs which means that one or more Division Members cannot participate, the chair of the meeting may adjourn the meeting until the difficulty is remedied or may, if a quorum of the Division General Meeting remains present, continue with the meeting.

5.11 Minutes of Division General Meeting

Minutes of any Division General Meetings must be maintained in accordance with Rule 15.1 [Minutes].

6 The Division Council

6.1 Role of the Division Council

The role of a Division Council is:

- (a) Promotion and Recruitment: to actively support:
  - (i) the promotion of the Society's activities in the Division;
  - (ii) the recruitment of Members and Volunteers in the Division; and
  - (iii) fundraising activities in the Division;
- (b) Communication and Feedback: to act as a communication channel:
  - (i) up to the Board and to management from Members and Volunteers in the Division;
  - (ii) down to Members and Volunteers within the Division from management; and
  - (iii) down to Members and Volunteers from the Board (if required);

Note: The preferred communication channel to Members and Volunteers from the Board is direct.
- (c) Governance of local activities: to establish and regulate Branches, Regions, Zones and other models of Members and Volunteers self-organisation within the Division;
- (d) Advisory: to consider issues of significance to the Division, including consulting with management (in line with the operating model) on undertaking work to support the Society's strategy in the Division; and

Note: The Director – State/Territory is an employee of the Society and reports to a member of management as determined by the CEO (Secretary-General). Although the Director – State/Territory does not report to the Division Council, they work in collaboration with the Division Council to achieve the strategic goals of the Society in the Division as determined by the Board.
- (e) to undertake any other functions delegated to it by the Board.

6.2 Powers of the Division Council

- (a) Each Division Council may exercise any of the powers:

- (i) vested in the Division Council by the Rules or these Governance Regulations; or
  - (ii) delegated to the Division Council by the Board.
- (b) Except where within the Board approved budget for a Division Council, no Division Council may incur or commit the Society to any expenditure without the consent of the Board or the CEO (Secretary-General).

6.3 Division Council work plan

- (a) Each Division Council must:
- (i) agree on an annual plan of work to undertake the role of the Division Council set out in Regulation 6.1 [Role of the Division Council] (Division Work Plan); and
  - (ii) provide written quarterly reports to the Board (through management) on the Division Council's progress against the Division Work Plan.
- (b) A Division Council may by resolution amend its work plan from time to time.

6.4 Eligibility to be a Division Councillor

A person is only eligible to be a Division Councillor if the individual:

- (a) is a Division Member;
- (b) has specific skills to further and promote the interests of the Division, in accordance with selection criteria as determined by the Board;
- (c) is at least 18 years of age;
- (d) is not in the paid employment of the Society or Australian Red Cross Lifeblood;
- (e) has not been in the paid employment of the Society or Australian Red Cross Lifeblood at any time within the period of 12 months immediately preceding the date of nomination or appointment;
- (f) is not a patron or vice-patron of the Division in accordance with Regulation 11 [Division Patrons and Vice-Patrons];
- (g) has not exceeded the maximum term under Regulation 6.8 [Term of office of Division Councillors]; and
- (h) is not barred from holding any governance or leadership role in the Society in accordance with Rule 11.9 [Removal or vacation of office (National Councillor)] or Regulation 13 [Misconduct procedures].

6.5 Division Council composition

- (a) A Division Council must comprise at least five and no more than 12 Division Councillors that are:
- (i) elected by the Division Members at a Division General Meeting in accordance with Regulation 7 [Election and re-election of Division Councillors];
  - (ii) appointed by the Division Council to fill a casual vacancy under Regulation 6.9 [Casual vacancy]; or
  - (iii) appointed by the Division Council in accordance with Regulation 6.6 [Appointed Division Councillors], provided that:

- (iv) at least two Division Councillors must be elected by Division Members in accordance with Regulation 7 [Election and re-election of Division Councillors] (unless at a Division General Meeting the Division Members resolve that more than two Division Councillors must be elected in accordance with Regulation 7 [Election and re-election of Division Councillors]); and

- (v) at least one Division Councillor must be under 30 years of age at the time of election or appointment, who is appointed by the Division Council to the position of Youth Member of the Division Council.
- (b) A Division Council may determine the maximum number of Division Councillors (between five and 12) that form the Division Council. Unless determined by the Division Council, a Division Council shall be deemed to be comprised of 12 Division Councillors.

6.6 Appointed Division Councillors

- (a) A Division Council may by resolution appoint or re-appoint any individual(s) to be a Division Councillors who:
  - (i) meets the eligibility criteria in Regulation 6.4 [Eligibility to be a Division Councillor];
  - (ii) has consented to act as a Division Councillor; and
  - (iii) has specific skills and experience to support the role of the Division Council as set out in Regulation 6.1 [Role of the Division Council],provided the Division Council has, before making any appointment or re-appointment called for nominations from Division Members and others by:
  - (iv) giving all Division Members at least 21 days' notice of:
    - (A) the Division Council's intent to appoint a Division Councillor; and
    - (B) the specific skills or experience sought by the Division Council; and
  - (v) advertised the vacancy on the Society's website for at least 21 days.
- (b) Despite Regulation 6.6(a), if the position of Youth Member becomes vacant, a Division Council must as soon as reasonably practicable appoint a Division Member that is under the age of 30 at the time of appointment, and meets the eligibility criteria in Regulation 6.4 [Eligibility to be a Division Councillor] to fill the vacancy, with such Youth Member to hold the position for a term determined under Regulation 6.8(b) [Term of office of Division Councillors].

6.7 Division Council Chair and Division Council Deputy Chair

- (a) Each Division Council must appoint a Division Council Chair and Division Council Deputy Chair from among the Division Councillors.
- (b) The Division Council Chair and Division Council Deputy Chair shall be declared appointed from the date of the resolution of the Division Council until the earlier of:
  - (i) the date they otherwise cease to be a Division Councillor; and
  - (ii) the date the Division Council resolves to appoint a different Division Councillor to be Division Council Chair or Division Council Deputy Chair (as the case may be).
- (c) If the Division Council Chair or the Division Council Deputy Chair ceases to be a Division Councillor, then the office of Division Council Chair or Division Council Deputy Chair (as the case may be) becomes vacant and the Division Council must appoint a new Division Council Chair or Division Council Deputy Chair (as the case may be).
- (d) The Division Council Chair must preside as chair at each meeting of the Division Council if present and willing to act.
- (e) If the Division Council Chair is not present at the meeting within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the meeting, is not present at any part of the meeting, or is unwilling to act the Division Council Deputy Chair will preside as chair at the meeting (or part thereof).
